

Whole Child – Whole Community Initiative Purpose Statement

In response to the Whole Child – Whole Community Initiative, the Wausau School District is pleased to partner with the United Way of Marathon County to directly link you to 2-1-1. This resource and information site is equipped to assist parents and students in need of community assistance.

Community Resources

Click on:

<http://www.unitedwaymc.org/211.htm>

Search links by alphabetical topics for community resources and phone numbers.

Identify the need and click on the first letter of the topic. For example: Click on F for FOOD related topics – Food Pantries, Food Community meals; S for SUPPORT GROUPS, or T for TENANT/LANDLORD INFORMATION.

If there is a topic that is not listed – please try related topic, or call 211 or 848-2255.

United Way's 2-1-1 is a free and confidential non-emergency community information and referral service.

District Resources

- Pupil Services – Jeff Joyce (261-0535)
- Special Education – Tammy Fruik (261-0532)
- Guidance & Counseling – Jane Freitag (261-0500)
- English Language Learners – Nell Anderson (261-0550)
- 21st Century Community Learning Centers - Nancy Cedar (261-0581)
- Contact your child's school office
- NTC Alternative High School – Wendy Peterson, Associate Dean K-16 Relations (803-1752)

If you're unable to access the Internet from your home, the following sites are available:

- Marathon County Public Library
- Neighbors' Place
- Your child's school – By appointment with Guidance Counselor
- Wausau Family Resource Center